> It required a large pitcher of ice water to cool Louis Romano's love for his beautiful wife, and he was still shivering when he appeared in Yorkville Court to-day and told his dolorous Mrs. Isabella Romano, whose beauty brought tingles of appreciation to the furrowed cheeks of the oldest court officers, heard her husband plaint in Magistrate Ommen's tribunal. Though Louis is only a humble boss barber, his wife is the daughter of a prominent Southern family. Her father, John Aiken, was a distinguished lawyer and left a large fortune. Mrs. Romano inherited her share, but spent it in training for the stage. Then the handsome barber came into her life and she gave up her art and settled down to quiet domesticity. Now it seems that in Louis's veins

When the Senate shall convene next autumn with all the inembers present, the treaty will be taken up and considered in the light of the developments at that time.

In view of this tacit understanding, it is quite probable the Senate will adjourn to-morrow or Friday. It is known that several Senators have made arrangements to leave Washington the latter part of this week. Among them is Senator Foraker, of Ohio, who, accompanied by Mrs. Foraker and former Senator Quarles, of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Quarles, will sail next Saturday for Italy.

FAVORS ANNEXATION OF SANTO DOMINGO.
